

LA CASINA
Tuscany, Italy

MONTERCHI • AREZZO • TUSCANY

La Casina is located in Monterchi, on the border between Tuscany and Umbria. Discover the tiny medieval hilltop village of Monterchi, situated at the centre of an area great in artistic, historic and religious significance. Only a few steps away, one can admire the greatly prized fresco of “La Madonna del Parto”, the Madonna of Childbirth. This famous masterwork, by Piero della Francesca, is an obligatory stop for the art lover.*

Monterchi overlooks the Cerfone Valley and is surrounded by sunflower fields, olive trees, tobacco, and wheat.

Monterchi is featured in “The Most Beautiful Villages of Tuscany,” a Thames and Hudson’s publishing. Monterchi is a very ancient village, with origins in the Etrusco-Roman times, as a sacred place of the cult of Hercules. The name Monterchi is derived from Mons Erculis, the hill of Hercules.

La Casina is a spacious accommodation, suitable to sleep 2-4. The top level consists of a cozy double bedroom, with an antique armoire, and with lovely views of the surrounding countryside. There is a large bathroom complete with bath/shower, bidet and washing machine..*

Spiral steps lead down to the middle level that provides a large living room and dining area. A TV and satellite dish allows one to watch foreign programs.

The lower level, with an attractive brick archway, is the modern equipped kitchen with a gas stove/oven and fridge. This level also has an eating area, and a small bathroom. Exposed beams and terra cotta floors throughout.

LA CASINA

Tuscany, Italy

The Municipal territory of Monterchi occupied for a good half by coppice woods, chestnut trees and grasslands extends for 28,73 square kilometres of the Val Tiberina.

Make sure to stop for some breath taking views. Explore the countryside, visiting the characteristic villages with their winding steep streets, hidden staircases, ancient houses and wide range of unique shops. Find your treasures.

Monterchi is also close to:

- Arezzo, where 'Life is Beautiful' was filmed, and where on the first week end of each month an important antiques market is held.
- Anghiari, a beautiful medieval hamlet
- Sansepolcro, the home of the Piero della Francesca.
- Caprese Michelangelo, birthplace of Michelangelo.
- Perugia, home to Baci chocolate.
- Casentino Hills with the lovely towns of Bibbiena and Poppi.
- La Verna and Camaldoli monasteries.

It is also easy to reach the famous cities of Florence, Siena, Cortona, Citta di Castello, Assisi, Todi, Gubbio and Urbino.

For recreation, there are many marked walking paths in the area, with picnic spots to encourage you. Stroll through meadows and beautiful ancient forests, where one can gather chestnuts, mushrooms, and truffles, when in season. The region is a paradise for nature lovers. Be sure to visit the Museo Madonna del Parto, Via Reglia 1, to admire the famous masterwork of Piero della Francesca "The Madonna del Parto".

Shop the local markets for fresh fruits and vegetables, fine cheeses, shoes, clothing, hardware, antiques, and so much more. The market comes Sunday mornings to Monterchi. Make friends with the locals. Use your hands to communicate if you have to! Don't pass up an opportunity to get to know these special people and their spectacular country!
